

Tithe Book of Apportionment 1840 for Limpsfield Parish Surrey, England

No. 2.—LONDON: Sold (by Authority) by ROUTLEDGE, 11, Hyde's Court, Leicester Square.

APPORTIONMENT of the RENT-CHARGE in lieu of TITHES in the parish of Limpsfield in the County of Surrey

Whereas an AWARD of RENT-CHARGE in lieu of TITHES in the parish of Limpsfield in the County of Surrey was, on the twenty second day of June in the Year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty, confirmed by the Tithe Commissioners for England and Wales, of which Award, with every Schedule thereunto comprised, the following is a Copy:—

Know all Men by these Presents that I Joseph Townsend having been duly appointed and sworn an Assistant Tithe Commissioner according to the Provisions of the Act for the Commutation of Tithes in England and Wales and having been also duly appointed to ascertain and award the total Sum to be paid by way of Rent Charge instead of the Tithes of the Parish of Limpsfield in the County of Surrey Do hereby Award as follows (that is to say)

Whereas I have held divers meetings in the said parish touching the matter aforesaid of which Meetings due notice was given for the information of the Landowners and Tithe Owners of the said parish—

And Whereas I have duly considered all the allegations and proofs tendered to me by all parties interested and have myself made all enquiries touching the premises subject which appeared to me to be necessary—

And Whereas due notice was given to me to value the Tithes of Lands in the said Parish which are cultivated as Hop Grounds separately and I find that the undermentioned lands of the said Parish as mentioned in the Schedule marked A herunto annexed and containing Seventy one acres three roods and thirty perches are now cultivated as Hop Grounds—

And Whereas I find that the estimated quantity in Statute Measure of all the Lands of the said Parish which are subject to the payment of Tithes amounts to Three thousand eight hundred and Forty

Listed in numerical order by Christopher Pendred and Nick Withers from the original handwritten vellum pages.

The Tithe Commutation Act

Tithes were originally paid as one-tenth of the produce of the land (crops, vegetables, eggs, cattle, timber, fish, honey etc.) to the Abbot's representative and stored in the tithe barn at the bottom of the village, on the left past St Peter's Church. At the Dissolution of the Monasteries by King Henry VIII, in 1536, Limpsfield passed out of Church ownership and the tithes were then paid to private landlords (individuals as well as The Gresham's estate of Titsey. A number of Inclosure Acts were passed from 1604 that created legal property rights to land previously held in common and made further modifications, either abolishing tithe payments entirely or replacing them with monetary payments. Various other arrangements also replaced payments in kind but not systematically. By the time of the Tithe Commutation Act there was considerable discontent over payment of tithes. The Limpsfield Parish tithe barn was dismantled and moved to Bluehouse Lane and became The Barn Theatre.

In 1836 the Tithe Commutation Act was passed which commuted the old system of giving tithe in kind into money charges on land. To do this, very detailed maps of rural Parishes were drawn up about 1840. These numbered each field and plot of land. An accompanying document called the 'Apportionment' recorded the names of all owners and occupiers of land in each Parish. Every farm was named and every field and piece of land belonging to it, also with its name, acreage and the use to which it was then put. At the time of publication these tithe maps constituted the most detailed record of a rural area attempted since Domesday. A Census return for Limpsfield in 1841 records that Ridlands Farm was occupied by Jasper Hillier, an agricultural labourer, his wife Ann and their seven children. There were extensive arable fields as well as coppice, woodland and hop gardens on the farmland. A large copy of the Tithe map of the Parish of Limpsfield is supplied with this book, packed in the slipcase and can be used with these details taken from the Apportionment of 1840.

Christopher Pendred

Apportionment of the Rent-Charges in lieu of Tithes in the Parish of Limpsfield in the County of Surrey, on the twenty second day of June 1840.

To be used in conjunction with the large, folded Tithe Map included in the slipcase with this book.

All fields and plots of land shown on the Tithe Map were numbered and originally grouped by ownership in the Book of Apportionment showing rents due. This list has been re-sorted into numerical order.

Old English measurements of land

An Acre. The Anglo-Saxon acre was defined as a strip of land $1 \times 1/10$ furlong, or 40×4 rods (660×66 feet). One acre gradually came to denote a piece of land of any shape measuring the present 4,840 square yards.

A Rood is a unit of area equal to one quarter of an acre or 10,890 square feet,

A Pole is a measure of area equal to 16.5×16.5 square feet, or 272.25 square feet. This is approximately 30 square yards or 25 square metres.

A Perch is an English unit of measurement equal to $5\frac{1}{2}$ yards or $16\frac{1}{2}$ feet or $\frac{1}{4}$ of a surveyor's chain.

Hop Poles stacked ready for use on 'Little Ingley Land'. Looking west towards Tenchleys Lane.

Drawing by Margaret Gillies. 3rd April 1832, age 29, of the Hop Field. No.500 on Tithing map (Grid Ref. H4 & H5) and in The Apportionment.

Margaret Gillies (7th August 1803 - 20th July 1887) became a professional portrait painter and stayed at Tenchleys on the Chart on a couple of occasions.

DISCLAIMER

Every effort has been made to ensure that our interpretation of the hand written letters, numbers and summaries copied in this booklet from the original velum pages of The Apportionment of the Rent-Charges in lieu of Tithes in the Parish of Limpsfield in the County of Surrey, are correct.
